

U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission

"We are the investor's advocate."

Graduating Law Students, LL.Ms, & Judicial Clerks

During Fall 2000, the SEC expects to hire 50-65 3Ls, LL.Ms and judicial law clerks under its Advanced Commitment Program.

Opportunities are available, as follows:

Location	Projected Positions
-----------------	----------------------------

Washington, DC Headquarters Offices:

Division of Corporation Finance	15 to 20
Division of Enforcement	10 to 15
Division of Market Regulation	5
Division of Investment Management	5
Office of General Counsel	2

Regional Offices:

New York	10 to 15
Chicago	8 to 10
Los Angeles	3 to 5
Miami	3 to 5
Denver	2 to 4

District Offices

5 or more

Atlanta, Boston, Ft. Worth, Philadelphia,
Salt Lake City, San Francisco

Applicants should submit:

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| ▪ a cover letter | ▪ transcript |
| ▪ resume | ▪ five to ten page legal writing sample |

Applications are accepted continually but for earliest consideration, applicants should apply during the fall recruitment season prior to December 1, 2000.

For Washington, DC positions, send your application to:

U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission
Attention: Antoine Dotson, Room 1120
450 5th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20549

For positions in the regional and district offices, send applications directly to the office addresses listed on the back.

For more information, please see the brochure, "Legal Opportunities with the SEC" which is available on the SEC website.

SEC is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer and Actively Seeks a Diverse Workforce

For more information, visit our website: www.sec.gov/asec/secjobs.htm.

Questions? Contact Antoine Dotson at 202-942-7320 or DotsonA@sec.gov or recruit@sec.gov.